Clark Advanced Learning Center student, Harlington Hanna, was recently named a 2012 National Merit Scholarship Program winner by the National Merit Scholarships Corporation.

STUART —Clark Advanced Learning Center student, Harlington Hanna, was named the winner of a 2012 National Merit Scholarship valued at $2,500 by the National Merit Scholarships Corporation for his exceptional academic achievements. Hanna was chosen because of his consistent high grades and exceptional SAT scores. National Merit scholars are outstanding students, representing less than one percent of high schools seniors nationally.

Hanna, of Indiantown, has already earned 45 dual enrollment credits toward an Associate of Arts degree from Indian River State College. He is also member of the National Honor Society and is majoring in anthropology.

The Clark Advanced Learning Center has been ranked as the seventh best high school in the state by the Florida Department of Education. Clark students have an opportunity to complete one to two years of college at no cost through dual enrollment, engage in internships related to their interests, and utilize technology in project-based learning. A personal laptop computer is assigned to each student while in attendance at the school. An A-rated public charter high school, the Clark Advanced Learning Center is located at the Indian River State College Chastain Campus, 2400 S.E. Salerno Road, in Stuart.
