Martin Volunteers

United Way of Martin County's Martin Volunteers program assists residents in finding volunteer opportunities that meet their needs. People interested in volunteering are asked to register with Martin Volunteers and identify their skills and interests. Martin Volunteers then searches for meaningful and rewarding volunteer opportunities at Martin County-based nonprofit organizations and public agencies. By doing all the leg work, Martin Volunteers gives its registered volunteers an opportunity to maximize their contribution to the community. This process also allows volunteers to discover volunteer opportunities with lesser known nonprofit organizations.

Volunteens

Volunteens is a website that helps teenage high school students find volunteering opportunities to not only better their community, but also to fill their high school's required community service hours.
