

Theme: Good character is worth celebrating!

Monday, Oct. 19th: "Hats off to good character!"
Wear your favorite school appropriate hat!

Tuesday, Oct. 20: Effective teams TRUST one another to show good character! We celebrate you being a part of the Clark team!
Wear CLARK SHIRT OR favorite TEAM JERSEY.

Wednesday, Oct. 21: UNITY DAY: Join the national movement and unite for Kindness, FAIRNESS, Acceptance, and Inclusion
Wear ORANGE.

Thursday, Oct. 22: "Make sure your choices match your character"
How mixed up can your clothes be? Mismatch day!

Friday, Oct. 23: Wear RED. CARE about yourself and others and make good choices! Substance use is ALWAYS a bad choice for you and your friends. Red Ribbon week begins today. Learn more here: <http://nfp.org/news/red-ribbon-campaign-announces-2020-national-red-ribbon-week-theme/>

If you are "caught" wearing the theme of the day on 3 days, you are invited to attend an ice cream celebration in the Career Café (October 28th @ 11:45am). There are slips of paper to get signed when you wear the stuff from above. Pick yours up at the front desk or if remote, send the photos and we'll check off the list for you.

Remote students and students without a class that day should email their pictures to Leslie_judd@clarkalc.net to also get to enjoy the week's celebrations and fun!

Poster contest: THEME: Good character is worth celebrating!

Entries due by noon Friday, October 23

Drop off at front desk (with your name on the back) or email your poster to Leslie_judd@clarkalc.net

5 winners will receive a gift card and the TOP winner will get to choose a class to enjoy donuts and juice! The judges will be given a sheet to score each door on the following criteria:

- Adherence to theme
- Creativity
- Overall appearance

The winning posters will be announced at 12:45 via announcement system and weekly email.
